Things to Do by Elaine Magliaro

"Brings to life the small moments and secret joys of a child's day. There are wonders everywhere. In the sky and on the ground--blooming in a flower bed, dangling from a silken thread, buzzing through the summer air--waiting ...waiting to be found. In this thoughtful and ingenious collection of poems, Elaine Magliaro and illustrator Catia Chien provide a luminous glimpse of the ordinary wonders all around us." — From Publisher (Adrienne Gear recommends for visualize.)

Roxaboxen by Alice McLerran

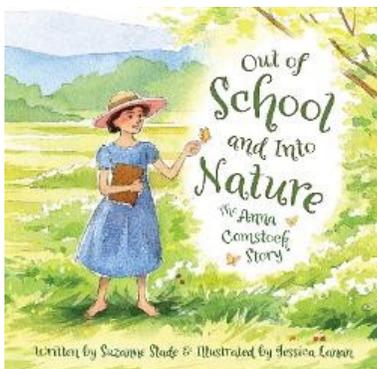

"Marian called it Roxboxen. There across the road, it looked like any rocky hill--nothing but sand and rocks, and some old wooden boxes. But it was a special place. And all children needed to go there was a long stick and a soaring imagination." — From Publisher

Under Your Nose: A Book About Nature's Gifts

by Judith and Shandley McMurray

"This beautifully illustrated book brings to life the importance and joy that comes of experiencing and preserving the beauty of the natural world. When Chloe and Zachary find themselves without their digital devices for a week at their grandparents' cottage, they quickly overcome their panic when they discover that adventures in the great outdoors are much more fun than anything the wired world has to offer." — From Publisher

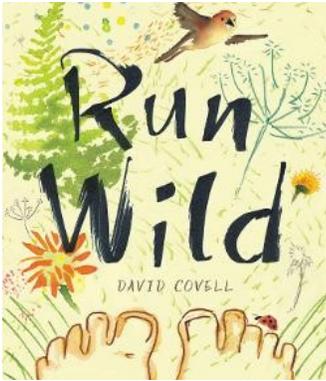

Out of School and Into Nature: The Anna Comstock Story by Suzanne Slade

"From the time she was a young girl, Anna Comstock was fascinated by the natural world. She loved exploring outdoors, examining wildlife and learning nature's secrets. From watching the teamwork of marching ants to following the constellations in the sky, Anna observed it all." — From Publisher
