What to Do With a Box by Jane Yolen

"If you give a child a box, who can tell what will happen next? It may become a library or a boat. It could set the scene for a fairy tale or a wild expedition. The most wonderful thing is its seemingly endless capacity for magical adventure." — From Follett

Not a Box by Antoinette Portis

"A box is just a box...unless it's not a box. From mountain to rocket ship, a small rabbit shows that a box will go as far as the imagination allows. Inspired by a memory of sitting in a box on her driveway with her sister, Antoinette Portis captures the thrill when pretend feels so real that it actually becomes real--when the imagination takes over inside a cardboard box, and through play, a child is transported to a world where anything is possible." — From Publisher

Big Box Little Box by Caryl Hart

"A curious cat investigates every box it can find--and makes a mouse friend along the way." — From Publisher

The Box by Axel Janssens

"Kenny is not jealous of Leo's new bike like the other children because he enjoys using his imagination and a cardboard box to go on exciting adventures." — From Follett
